Profile:

Jack is a former client who through the power of coaching and 2byb has moved from corporate leader to high performance coach. He is a dynamic facilitator with a passion for people development. He represents the future of 2b Limitless.

Working in management consulting and most recently at Kraft Heinz in Asia, Jack is no stranger to working across and leading diverse teams with a global outlook. His roles have covered finance and strategy across multiple business units and geographies. Jack's strong record leading his team in South-East Asia was driven by his passion for people and his commitment to coaching them.

Recent notable coaching work includes 2bUYS (Unleash Your Strengths - using the Clifton framework) and great one-on-one workshops.

As an executive coach, Jack is strengths based and truly passionate about going on a journey with your Next Generation of Leadership. Supporting them as they move from high potential to stand out members of leadership teams in a dynamic environment.

Jack has trained through the ICF standard and is a certified Gallup Global Strengths Coach.
